

ESD.801: Leadership Development
Homework Assignment #4: Personal Leadership Formulation
Handed Out: 26 Oct 07
Due: 30 Nov 07 (Note: class is from 9 am-12 pm, in 32-144)

Assignment #4. Your response is limited to five (5) pages TOTAL and should be the culmination of your thinking, reading, and creating in ESD.801 (100%).

1. Present you own personal 'n' qualities of a leader ($n < 10$), stating each leadership quality and including a succinct description (narration, references, story, illustrations, etc.). A recommended format is one similar to the Augustine reading. The goals of this exercise are to reflect on the qualities of leadership and to define your personal leadership aspirations. Please emphasize your near-term, leadership goals for your TPP career here at MIT and beyond. Excellent responses will include in-depth, reflective narratives that demonstrate scholarly work including: reviewing the literature, discussing your own contributions and/or experiences, and presenting your chosen qualities of leadership.

An electronic copy is appreciated (email to dnewman@mit.edu and include your last name in the filename), but not required, for my TPP archives as well as to continue this discussion with you over the next few years.
